FIP Senior European Championships Spain makes gold collection

A triumph for padel, but especially for Spain. The hosts won all the gold medals in the team competitions of the FIP Senior European Championships, which ended at the Ciudad Deportiva Camilo Ciano in La Nucia. More than 500 'veterans' from 17 different countries - Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Great Britain, Ireland, Israel, Italy, Lithuania, Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Spain and Sweden - battled it out in Alicante, but it was the Spaniards who prevailed in both the 'Senior' (Over 40, 45 and 50) and 'Super Senior' (Over 50, 55 and 60) categories.

Among the men, Spain took the Senior gold with Sweden silver and France bronze, while among the Super Seniors it was Italy that took the lowest step on the podium, with Sweden also in second place. Among the women, however, it was still Spain, Sweden and France in the Seniors but with Sweden and France reversed from the men's standings; among the Super Seniors, finally, it was the Netherlands that came third, with Sweden still second behind the dominators of an exciting first edition of the Senior European Championships, in which almost 500 athletes took part.

About the International Padel Federation (FIP)

About the International Padel Federation (FIP) The International Padel Federation (FIP) is the world governing body of padel, whose goal is to promote all forms of padel worldwide with: 90 Countries, 64 National Federations, + 25 million active players and 500,000 Federated Players. The sport was created in Acapulco, Mexico, by Enrique Corcuera in 1969. It was 32 years later that the FIP was established in Madrid by the legal representatives of the Argentine Padel Association, the Spanish Padel Association and the Uruguayan Padel Association, by means of Public deeds signed before the Notary Mr. Javier Gaspar Alfaro, with the protocol number 2486. We want to bring the worldwide Padel family together into one community, and make Padel a sport that is recognised and played in all the countries of the World. www.padelfip.com
