Qatar ambassador in Italy the Foro Italico “Premier Padel takes this sport to another level”

In the first row, enjoying the show of the BNL Italy Major Premier Padel finals, was also the ambassador of Qatar in Rome. And Khalid Yousuf Al-Sada, as he did a year ago, was able to enjoy the show on a Centre Court sold out with 10,000 fans. The passion for padel did not spare even Al-Sada, who watched the decisive matches close to the president of the International Padel Federation, Luigi Carraro.

“For me, being here was a great opportunity – said –. I was here last year too, and I could see the evolution between one edition and the next, and the growth that this tournament has been able to have. I think that the male and female players, since the one in Rome was the first women's tournament in the history of Premier Padel, had a great experience, and I think the same can be said for the fans”.

Qatar Sports Investments is a major player in the Premier Padel circuit, along with the FIP and the Professional Padel Association (PPA). “Premier Padel is giving the discipline a chance to go up a level. Padel is growing so much on a global scale, and also in my country, Qatar. But I am happy to be in Italy, because there are so many opportunities to play”.
