BNL Italy Major Premier Padel Saturday at 7.30 p.m. the draw on the 'Pietrangeli'

The appointment is for tomorrow, in one of the most suggestive locations in world tennis, not only in the Foro Italico in Rome: the court 'Nicola Pietrangeli'. It is there, in the stadium which has the name of the Italian tennis legend, that the main draw for the BNL Italy Major Premier Padel 2023 will take place at 7.30 p.m., with live coverage on the tournament's Facebook page.

The draw will be attended by the tournament director Mauricio Rosciano, board of the FIP, Premier Padel, and some top players who will be on court from Monday 10th to Sunday 16th in an unmissable event, in which the world's strongest male and female pairs will participate.

The men's draw will consist of 56 pairs, eight of which will come from the qualifying rounds scheduled for the weekend; the women's draw, on the other hand, will consist of 48 pairs, eight of which will be winners of the only qualifying round scheduled for Monday. In the men's, the first eight seeded pairs (entry list led by the reigning Spanish champions Galan and Lebron) will be exempted from the first round (divided between Monday and Tuesday) and will debut in the second round on Wednesday; in the women's, on the other hand, the 'bye' will be granted to the 16 seeded pairs, who will then wait for the winners of the first round.
