After the show of the FIP Juniors World Padel Championships in Asuncion, the FIP PROMISES Tour is back with a weekend to enjoy in Amsterdam. Five draws are scheduled, two knockout and three round robins. Number 1 seed in the Under 14 men's draw are Dutchmen Benjamin Langendorff and Nathan Van Lijf, and in the Under 16 men's draw, compatriots Thomas Panken and Jorrit Hazebroek. In the men's Under 18, seven pairs at the start divided into a group of three and one of four. Among the women, there will be a single group of four for the Under 16 and a single group of three for the Under 18.

About the International Padel Federation (FIP)

About the International Padel Federation (FIP) The International Padel Federation (FIP) is the world governing body of padel, whose goal is to promote all forms of padel worldwide with: 90 Countries, 64 National Federations, + 25 million active players and 500,000 Federated Players. The sport was created in Acapulco, Mexico, by Enrique Corcuera in 1969. It was 32 years later that the FIP was established in Madrid by the legal representatives of the Argentine Padel Association, the Spanish Padel Association and the Uruguayan Padel Association, by means of Public deeds signed before the Notary Mr. Javier Gaspar Alfaro, with the protocol number 2486. We want to bring the worldwide Padel family together into one community, and make Padel a sport that is recognised and played in all the countries of the World. www.padelfip.com
