FIP RISE Bourg en Bresse, Goenaga and Martinez top seeded

The second-to-last FIP RISE of the season in Europe is being played in Bourg en Bresse, in eastern France, a few kilometres from the Swiss border. After the end of the qualifiers, 32 pairs will compete from today until Sunday, with Spain's Enrique Goenaga (world number 49) and Javier Martinez (101) the number 1 seed. Italian-Argentinian Nicolas Suescun (75) and another Spanish, Victor Mena (80), follow on the entry list, with other top 100 players on court.

Argentine Federico Mouriño (74) plays with Mario Huete Hernandez (85), while Benjamin Tison (66) is paired with Aitor Garcia Bassas (98). The last European tournament in this category (25 FIP points for the winners) will be played in Mijas, Spain, from 7 to 10 December.

About the International Padel Federation (FIP)

About the International Padel Federation (FIP) The International Padel Federation (FIP) is the world governing body of padel, whose goal is to promote all forms of padel worldwide with: 90 Countries, 64 National Federations, + 25 million active players and 500,000 Federated Players. The sport was created in Acapulco, Mexico, by Enrique Corcuera in 1969. It was 32 years later that the FIP was established in Madrid by the legal representatives of the Argentine Padel Association, the Spanish Padel Association and the Uruguayan Padel Association, by means of Public deeds signed before the Notary Mr. Javier Gaspar Alfaro, with the protocol number 2486. We want to bring the worldwide Padel family together into one community, and make Padel a sport that is recognised and played in all the countries of the World. www.padelfip.com
