FIP Promises Middelkerke, in Belgium the talents of the future

The third stage of the FIP Promises circuit, reserved for young people who dream of becoming great padel players, is being played this weekend in Middelkerke (Belgium). As many as five draws are scheduled in Flanders, three men's and two women's. Among the boys, there is a knockout format for the Under 14 (Vicente Soto and Iago Fuertes seeded No. 1) and Under 16 (Lenno Degeling and Gauthier van Tornhout lead the entry list), while the Under 18 are divided into a round of three and a round of four, with the top two pairs from each round qualifying for the semi-finals.

Among the girls, the Under 14 (two rounds of three) and Under 18 are on court, with eight pairs at the start divided into two round robins of four and the Dutch Noa Van der Berg seeking with Jasmin Luneman a success already achieved in November in the FIP Promises in Amsterdam.
