In the women's draw, the big match of the day went to Spain, whose 4-1 win over Argentina gave it first place in Group A. The quarter-finals will be played from 10 a.m.: Netherlands-Sweden, France-United States (the tie will be broadcast live on the FIP YouTube channel and that of the Federation of Comunitat Valenciana) and Belgium-Italy. Spain, which benefits from a bye, will return to the court directly in the semifinals on Friday.

In the men's tournament, en plein for Argentina (over Denmark, which featured Mads Thunoe Laudrup, son of former footballer Michael), Sweden (over Germany), France (over Uruguay), Italy (over Australia, which had on court former tennis legend Pat Rafter) and Mexico (over Great Britain). If Spain gave up a match to the United States, still winning 4-1, the most balanced ties were those won 3-2 by Belgium and Chile over Portugal and Brazil. These are the quarter-finals starting at 4 p.m.: Spain-Mexico (live on the FIP YouTube channel and that of the Comunitat Valenciana Federation), Italy-France, Sweden-Netherlands, Chile-Argentina.
