The charge of Europe's top 256 in a single ticket: get your seat in the stands for the FIP European Padel Championships

The best two hundred and fifty-six players in Europe in a single ticket at Tennis Club Cagliari, where the FIP European Padel Championships take place. Tickets are on sale for just 12 euros - on Monday, July 22 and Tuesday, July 23 for the first two days of the group stage - for the whole day, following the four groups of the women's tournament with all the teams on the court and, in the afternoon, the same schedule for the men's draw. An immersive experience in the best padel on the continent with many recognized stars from the world circuits, both male and female. On Wednesday, July 24, for the decisive day of the group stage, and Thursday, July 25, the ticket for the entire day will cost 22 euros; while the matches of the final stage scheduled for Friday, July 26 and Saturday, July 27, which will determine the positions from first to sixteenth (all teams will remain in play until the end, with a very tight schedule) are on sale for 32 euros for the entire day.

Admission is free for FITP members.
