

July 24, 2024

FIP European Padel Championships, day 3 women Spain and Italy close with an en plein. Here are the quarterfinals

The day 3 of the women's draw at the FIP European Padel Championships elected the teams qualified for the quarterfinals, scheduled for tomorrow. Spain and Italy closed the group stage without losing a match: at the Centre court, 3-0 by Spain over Denmark thanks to victories by Ortega/Castellò, Llaguno/Sainz and Caldera/Alonso, while host Italy beat Germany with the same score with Pappacena/Sussarello, Vano/Parmigiani and Orsi/Stellato. For Denmark and Germany, however, the glory of qualification to the quarters, with the Germans facing Spain and the Danes against Italy.

In Group B, France came back 2-1 against Belgium after the defeat in the first match of the tie (wins by Godallier/Sireix and Touly/Soubrie) and finished at the top; second place for Portugal, who didn't a single set against Poland. Finally, in Group D, Sweden won the direct clash against Netherlands (2-1, decisive point by Soleymani/Behram), but the Oranje can also celebrate the qualification for the quarters. Here are the tomorrow's challenges at TC Cagliari: Spain-Germany, Sweden-Portugal, France-Netherlands, Italy-Denmark.
