

October 8, 2024

FIP Rise Catamarca, Arnó and Acosta's perfect weekend

It was Argentina's Nicolas Arnó and Valentino Acosta Kremnitzer who won the FIP Rise in Catamarca, Argentina, in a final with more than 1,000 spectators: decisive, for the final success of the number 6 seed on the draw, the double 6-3 to Julián Leite and Juan Pablo Dametto. "We are very happy with the level we are showing on the court – Arnó said –. Thank you Valentino for helping me realise a dream. But congratulations also to Julian and 'Juampi' for the great season you are having". "I can't explain how excited and happy I am about this weekend – Acosta added –. After three years I managed to win an international tournament. Catamarca will remain in my heart, thanks to all the people who made me feel at home, I really don't know what I did to receive this affection and encouragement. Thank you Nicolas, you deserve this victory".

*****

Press contacts:
International Padel Federation:
press@padelfip.com