

November 8, 2024

FIP Promises Perugia, three categories on the field with over 150 young promises

The Fastweb Padel Arena in Perugia (Italy) is set to host a new event of the FIP Promises, the circuit of the International Padel Federation dedicated to young talents. Over the weekend, more than 150 under-18 talents, primarily Italians and Spaniards, will compete to win the title and earn valuable points in the FIP ranking.

Among the six draws, three male and three female, the presence of the U14 male pair Gianmarco Moscuza and Tommaso Rufo stands out, fresh from their victory in another FIP Promises Tour event in Grugliasco.

After the qualifications, today sees the first round of the main draw. The semifinals and finals will be held on Sunday, determining the winners of the respective categories.

Press contacts:
International Padel Federation:
press@padelfip.com