FIP Promises Barcelona, Four categories in play with over 200 young talents

Barcelona once again hosts a FIP Promises tournament, where more than 200 young talents will compete for the finals scheduled for Sunday.

The tournament is divided into four main categories: U12, U14, U16, and U18, each featuring male and female brackets. In the U12 category, the top seeds are Bruno Gadea and Cristian Blanco for the boys, while Marina Mesa and Ona Montes lead the girls' bracket. For the U14, Ian Garcia and Alejandro Alonso top the boys' draw, with Eva Vazquez and Carla Hernandez dominating the upper section of the girls' bracket. In the U16 category, Hugo Estévez and Bryan Santos take the spotlight among the boys, while Paula Diaz and Martina Cebollero stand out in the girls' competition. Lastly, the top seeds in the U18 category are Noé Sánchez and Gustavo Nunes for the boys and Ariadna Palet and Judith Pitarch de Paco for the girls.

The upcoming events will take place in Buenos Aires from December 12 to 15, followed by the FIP Promises Finals in Venice, scheduled from December 19 to 22.
