At the weekend, a FIP Bronze will be played in San Antonio (Chile) with a men's draw featuring as the number 1 seed the Argentines Manuel Gayone (photo) and Axel William Guevara, who have a feeling for Chile, having won last year's FIP Rise in La Serena as a pair. Gayone, currently number 161 in the FIP rankings, also won titles in the FIP Rise in Santiago (also in Chile) and the FIP Star in Aguascalientes in 2024, and is aiming to get off to the best possible start in the new season. At the bottom of the draw, the number 2 seeded players are Mexico's Diego Arredondo and Spain's Iago González Niño.
